

Yukon Mineral Industry 1941 To 1959

R. L Debicki

Who's Who of Canadian Women, 1999-2000 - Google Books Result Hello! On this page you can Yukon Mineral Industry 1941 To 1959 to read it on your PC, smartphone or laptop. To get this book, you must click on Yukon Mineral Industry 1941 To 1959 pdf book National Park Service: Golden Places: The History of Alaska-Yukon. Alaska Statehood Act - Wikipedia, the free encyclopedia from 1955 to 1959 R.M. Chapman, 1978, unpublished U.S.G.S. memorandum. Brooks, A.H., 1907, The Alaskan mining industry in 1906: U.S. Geological Survey Ellsworth, C.E., 1910, Placer mining in the Yukon-Tanana region: U.S. Smith, P.S., 1941, Mineral industry of Alaska in 1939: U.S. Geological Survey Geological Survey Bulletin - Google Books Result Dec 15, 2009. Yukon mineral industry, 1941 to 1959 by R. L. Debicki, 1983, Indian and Northern Affairs Canada, 1983. edition, in English. Harry W. Marsh - University of Idaho Library Homepage Oct 1, 2008. The History of Alaska-Yukon Mining, NPS Logo From 1938 to 1941 the industry averaged more than $24 million annually, 1959-1979 Yukon Mineral Industry 1941 To 1959 30,000 people traveled north into the Yukon Territory and Alaska in search of gold. Several industries flourished as a result, such as fishing, trapping, mining. On January 3, 1959, after much struggle and through the efforts of many, Alaska from Washington 1941-1953 and Senator from Washington 1953-1983 A synthesis of previously unpublished information concerning Yukon's mineral industry during a period dominated by precious metal production from placer. Dome Creek ARDF #LG049 Au - MRData - USGS Jan 8, 2014. Placer gold mining in Clear Creek extends back to 1900, when the kg obtained by dredging operations 1941 to 1955, and 1981 to 1987. Yukon Territory, 1968 - Yukon Archives Digital Library A synthesis of previously unpublished information concerning Yukon's mineral industry during a period dominated by precious metal production from placer gold. Spruce Creek Mine, Innoko District, Yukon-Koyukuk Borough. Publications - DGGs Miscellaneous Report Series Alaska Division. Historical Atlas of Canada: Addressing the twentieth century, - Google Books Result View R71-9-1959-1-fra.pdf PDF, 3.62 Mo. This document has been Published aussi en anglais sous le titre: Yukon mineral industry, 1941 to 1959. Date, 1983. Dec 10, 2009. Yukon mineral industry, 1941 to 1959 by R. L. Debicki 1 edition First published in 1983 Subjects: Mineral industries, Mines and mineral YUKON MINERAL INDUSTRY 1941 to 1959 - Government of Yukon PAC to work properly. Yukon College Library Catalogue Yukon mineral industry, 1941 to 1959 compiled and edited by R.L. Debicki. Author: Debicki, R. L Placer gold and associated heavy minerals of the Clear Creek. In 1912 he went to White Horse, Yukon Territory to manage the Atlas Mining. of the Idaho Mining Association, a position he held until his retirement in 1959. Wastes where he represented the entire non-ferrous metal mining industry. From 1935 to 1941 he was in charge of the Shoshone County flood relief program. ?The Dawning of a New Era - Parks Canada History The territorial mining industry escaped the full economic impact of the war until. was the suspension of operations by Treadwell Yukon in November 1941. during the winter of 1959-60 that was capable of handling large diesel tractor units. Industrie minière du Yukon, 1941 à 1959: R71-91959-1F-PDF. Yukon Mineral Industry 1941 To 1959 by R. L Debicki. The Mineral Industry of Alaska HE OUTSTANDING event in the mineral industry in 1959 was. Yukon mineral industry, 1941 to 1959 Open Library 9780662124856 Yukon Mineral Industry 1941 To 1959 by compiled. 214 Results. Mineral industries -- Yukon Territory. 4 1959. 1958. 1957. 1956. 1955. 1954. 1953. 1952. 1951. 1950. 1949. 1948. 1947. 1946. 1945. 1944. 1943. 1942. 1941. 1940. 1939. 1938. 1937. 1936. 1935. 1934. 1933. 1932. 1931. Circular - Google Books Result ? Dictionary of Alaska Place Names - Google Books Result YUKON MINERAL INDUSTRY. 1941 to 1959 i. i. A synthesis of previously unpublished information concerning Yukon's mineral industry precious metal Search Results for Mines and mineral resources -- Canada. @bookisbnplus9780662124856, titleYukon Mineral Industry 1941 To 1959, authorR. L Debicki, isbn9780662124856, Library.Solution PAC - Search Results - Yukon College Library Concise Historical Atlas of Canada - Google Books Result THE ECONOMY 7 Mining 7 Transportation & Communications 10 Electric Power. Population I 19Q1 '27,219 1911 8,513 1921 4,157 1931 4,230 1941 4,914 Resources: The most significant characteristic of the Yukon minerals industry is Sales-Yukon Retail Outlets Year Dollars 1959 $14,400,000 1960 15,900,000 TRENDS IN ALASKA'S MINERAL INDUSTRY United States Geological Survey Professional Paper - Google Books Result Malone, Kevin, 1962, Trip report, yearly mineral industry survey: Alaska Division of. Joesting, H.R., and Glover, A.E., 1941, Strategic minerals in Alaska: Alaska Territorial. Saunders, R.H., 1959, Silver-lead occurrences in the Fairbanks district: Thomas, B.I., 1948, Gold placers of the Firth River, Yukon Territory, Canada: Yukon Mineral Industry, 1941 to 1959 - Debicki, R. L, Canada Consumption of major mineral industry products in Alaska, Latitudes: Presented at Alaska Chapter of AIME Anchorage, April 1959. eral area of the Canadian Yukon will serve as an illustration of the transport the 1941-50 decade. Yukon mineral industry, 1941 to 1959 Open Library Gold Rush to Alaska - History - Yukon Spruce Creek Mine, Innoko District, Yukon-Koyukuk Borough, Alaska, USA: Location. Assessment work is reported in 1959 Saunders, 1960. Smith, P.S., 1941, Mineral industry of Alaska in 1939: U.S. Geological Survey Bulletin 926-A, p. Yukon mineral industry, 1941 to 1959 University of Toronto Libraries Geological Survey Professional Paper - Google Books Result Read all about the fascinating Gold Rush history of Alaska and the Yukon, The active in the restoration and preservation of what remains of the once lusty mining camp. An important new industry was created to service the steamers. year by the Yukon Consolidated Gold Corporation. and from 1941 to 1959 worked